Pretender Says He Fights for Imprisoned Brother of the Sultan.

Tangier, Morocco, January 2.—If the situation becomes more grave the sultan of Morocco will abandon Fez, the capital, retire to Rabat and summon the border tribes to a holy war. The sultan then will proclaim himself shereif and defender of Islam, renounce all European leanings and then, at the head of the forces, attempt to retake Fez.

Advices from Fez under yesterday's date have been received here. Guns were then being mounted on the walls for the defense of the city, but the rebels remained inactive. They have not sufficient supplies for expeditions from their headquarters.

The city of Fez continued quiet, but the dearth of food was causing discontent. The pretender has issued a proclamation announcing that he is not fighting for the throne for himself, but for the sultan's imprisoned brother, Mulai Mohammed, surnamed the "One-eyed."

It is now confirmed that the sultan has ordered his brother's release and that the honors of his rank be paid to him.

The governor, at a recent conference with the Kabyle chiefs, pointed out to them that they are responsible for the safety of the roads running through their territory.

The Spanish sloop of war Infanta Isabel has arrived here.

Gibraltar, Jan. 2.—The dispatch of Spanish reinforcements to Morocco has been countermanded.

The latest advices from Fez, Morocco, say that city remains calm.

PEDESTRIANS SEEK CENTER OF STREETSSleety Drizzle Produces Icy Glare and Makes the Walking Perilous.

Pedestrians in Fort Wayne today abandoned the sidewalks and sought the center of the streets as the best possible solution of the locomotion problem, which was a perilous performance at best.

Following the ideal winter of the last few days, this morning brought a steady fall of half rain and half sleet that quickly transformed the sidewalks to a treacherous glare of ice. But a short time was required to teach pedestrians that the center of the street afforded the safest path and all day the foot passengers have disputed right-of-way with street cars and other vehicles.

The precipitation has fallen during the greater part of the day with distressing persistency, and the indication tonight is for rain or snow. Cooler temperature is marked up for tomorrow.

NEW YEAR'S EVE WEDDINGS.

Miss Nellie N. Taylor and John D. Fisher were united in marriage on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the residence of Rev. E. W. Allen, 707 West Jefferson street. Mr. and Mrs. Fisher left on a wedding trip, which will include Toledo and Detroit. The groom is a traveling salesman and is well known in this city.

James Linden and Miss Artance McIntosh, both of New Haven, Grove to this city Wednesday afternoon and were quietly married at the parsonage of Berry Street M. E. church by Rev. J. K. Walts. The young people kept the affair a secret and created a profound surprise among their friends Wednesday evening when they returned home and announced the wedding.

Miss Ethel Opdyke and James Meese were married Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock by Rev. J. K. Walts, pastor of Berry Street M. E. church, at his home. Mr. and Mrs. Meese have begun housekeeping at 222 East Columbia street. Mr. Meese is the owner of a livery stable.

A REPORTED HOLD-UP.

It was reported to the police this morning that a Wabash brakeman was held up and robbed by two negroes near Fairfield avenue at about 5 o'clock this morning. It was that the man lost a gold watch and $8 in money. The report could not be verified by the police and though three officers worked all morning on the case they could not find out who the victim was. The rumor had it that the man was on his way to go out on his run when stopped and after being relieved of his valuables he went out at once and did not have time to report the matter.

COUNTERFEITERS CAPTURED.

Wilmington, Del., Jan. 2.—Secret Service Agent George F. Foster, of Washington, after a long investigation succeeded in locating a counterfeiters' den at 529 West Second street, this city, and today it was raided by the police. Biagini Malea, a betted known as "Mike Ross," Sathia Malea, his wife, and Nicola Di Pace, his brother-in-law, were arrested and the plant captured. It was an unusually large one, comprising ten moulds, a number of mixing pots, dies, presses and other counterfeiting paraphernalia. The parties will have a hearing before Acting United States Commissioner Hollis. Among the materials captured were about 100 counterfeit dollars and some partly formed nickels.

Evening.

The annual meeting of the Sons of the American Revolution was held last evening and the following officers were elected:

GAVE HIM A SURPRISE.

Theodore Eggemann, who recently erected a handsome new residence in Adams township, was the victim of a very delightful surprise party on New Year's day, when friends and relatives to the number of sixty came to spend the day and enjoy the abundant hospitality for which the Eggemann home is noted. The occasion was thoroughly enjoyable and it will long be a pleasant memory both to the host and the guests. Those present included Chairman Eggemann, of the board of works, with his family; County Assessor William Eggemann and family. Con Eggemann and family, Mr. McDarby and his family, John Eggemann, Henry Reber and family and Henry Zollinger and family.

WILL SHARE PROFITS.

New York, Jan. 2.—Announcement was made today that another industrial corporation has inaugurated a plan to share its profits with employees. The Pressed Steel Car company proposes to carry for each of its employees who have been six months or more in its employ from one to twenty-five shares of the preferred stock, now paying 7 per cent. dividends. The men will pay 5 per cent. down and the same amount in monthly installments thereafter, the company charging 4 per cent. for moneys loaned to carry the stock. As the dividend is 7 per cent., the buyer will have the advantage of the 3 per cent. difference.

PACIFIC CABLE IS COMPLETEDHawaii Now Connected With the United States by Submarine Wire.

FIRST MESSAGE IS SENT

Was to the President, Who Was Asleep—Greetings are Exchanged.

San Francisco, Jan. 2.—San Francisco and Honolulu are now connected by cable. The first words passed under the ocean a few minutes after 11 o'clock last night. The wire worked perfectly.

The Silvertown, just before splicing the ends, some thirty miles off shore from Honolulu, telegraphed both ways for the land stations to wait until 11:10 o'clock, San Francisco time, before trying the cable. That time was desired to insure the perfect hardening of the gutta percha in the splice after the joint should be lowered overboard from the ship in about 2,500 feet of water.

Operators sat anxiously and eagerly about the instruments in King street, Honolulu, and in the cable office on Market street, in San Francisco, waiting for the time limit to expire.

A few minutes after 11 o'clock, before the time limit was up, a signal went from this end to Honolulu.

The first little response from Honolulu came into San Francisco at exactly 11:03 o'clock. It was exactly 8:41 in Honolulu, the time difference being two hours and twenty-two minutes and a few seconds.

The first message received was from Governor Dole to President Roosevelt. It was merely a formal greeting and congratulation from the people of Hawaii to the people of the United States from one chief executive to the other. The message was transmitted at the Market street office to a wire leading directly to the executive mansion in Washington, D. C., and its receipt was immediately acknowledged.

When the message reached the white house President Roosevelt was asleep and the operator refused to awaken him.

Right after the Dole signature on the first message came a second message from Honolulu. It was a greeting from the people of Hawaii to Clarence H. Mackay, president of the cable company, congratulating him on the completion of the cable and expressing sorrow that John W. Mackay had not survived to see the instantaneous bond between the islands and the American continent. This message was signed by Henry E. Cooper, secretary of the territory of Hawaii. Then came a message from the Associated Press correspondent on the Silvertown, telling of the successful laying of the cable and of the celebration of the event in Honolulu.

The paper ribbon containing the record of the first experimental work between San Francisco and Honolulu was cut into little sections of a few phrases each and divided among the score of spectators who were assembled about the instruments when San Francisco and Honolulu first spoke to each other under the Pacific ocean. The line will be open for business today.

COMPETITION OF THE CABLE.

Honolulu, Jan. 2.—The first section of the Commercial Pacific Cable company's trans-Pacific cable was completed at 8:40 last night between the United States and Honolulu.

Having buoyed the deep sea end of the cable in the turbulent Molokai channel at 5:20 o'clock on the morning of Friday, Dec. 26, after much difficulty and great risk, the Silvertown came on to Honolulu, docking at the naval wharf at noon. The big ship was met in the harbor by tugs and excursion boats, carrying welcoming delegations with bands of music and escorted to the wharf, where a great crowd awaited. It was the intention of the engineer in charge of the expedition to take on board one thousand tons of coal as ballast and await favorable weather to return, pick up the sea end and bring it close in shore and buoy it.

The shore end of the cable was then to be laid out and the final connection made at that point. Saturday brought no improvement in the weather conditions.

On the 28th conditions were no better and it was determined to lay the short end of the cable, which was done, thousands of people watching the work of placing on land the line that was to connect the islands with the United States.

On Thursday, the first day of the new year, scarcely a breeze stirred the waters of the harbor and advice came to the ship from Diamond Head lighthouse that the channel was quite calm with only a moderate swell running. A few minutes after 4 o'clock in the morning the Silvertown heaved anchor and made a start down the bay. Prospects of the cable connection on the first day of the new year created intense interest in the city, where the enthusiasm had been somewhat dulled by the long delay.

At daylight the Silvertown arrived off Koko head, where the shore end had been buoyed since Monday.

With little difficulty the line from the bottom was spliced upon deck and passed over the stern sheaves and a start was made from the outer buoy. The cable was paid out at the rate of seven knots an hour. Shortly after 1 o'clock in the afternoon the Silvertown reached the point where the end was buoyed. The sea was not rough, but the swell rolled the vessel considerably. Great care was taken in handling her while taking up the buoy. It was finally accomplished at 3:44 o'clock without untoward incident. The connection with the testing room was quickly made and San Francisco responded promptly to the call.

Connection was then made at 4:40.

ANIMALS CREMATED
IN FIRE AT ARCOLADr. Cutshall Loses His Barn, Two Carriage Horses and Other Property.

The barn of Dr. G. W. Cutshall, of Arcola, was completely consumed by fire at an early hour this morning. The flames almost completely enveloped the upper portion of the building before they were discovered and it was impossible to save any of the contents. The doctor's two valuable carriage horses and twenty-five fancy chickens perished in the fire. Two hundred bushels of oats, about 100 bushels of corn, a lot of hay, a buggy and a sleigh were also burned. Dr. Cutshall had his face and hands badly burned while attempting to get his horses from the burning building. He also inhaled hot smoke and possibly some of the flame and is in bed in consequence, though his injuries are not of a permanent character. The origin of the fire is a mystery. There was a heating apparatus in the part of the barn occupied by the poultry, but Dr. Cutshall says it had not been in operation for several days and he does not believe that the fire originated there. He also says that no person with a lantern or light was in the building last night so far as he is able to learn and he is unable to account for the fire. The loss is upwards of $1,500, with no insurance. Dr. Cutshall allowed a policy of several hundred dollars to lapse a few days ago, intending to place his insurance with another company.

The residents of the village turned out and gave invaluable assistance in preventing spread of the flames to the house. The barn was located near the house and it was through the efforts of the townspeople that the latter was saved.

BOAT'S CREW IN SEA.

Manila, Jan. 2.—A boat's crew from the United States cruiser Don Juan de Austria, made the first successful attack on the mine fields in the manoeuvres near Subig bay. The boat capsized as it was approaching the mines and part of the crew, with Ensign Babcock leading, swam a mile, although the water was infested with sharks, towing countermine buoys, which were successfully placed. The searchlights of the warships did not discover the operation. Ensign Babcock and his men were congratulated on their courage.

Rear Admiral Evans' fleet will abandon Subig bay Monday and come to Manila for heavy gun practice. One target will represent a submarine vessel and will appear on the surface briefly.

CARRIAGE WORKERS OUT.

Amesbury, Mass., Jan. 2.—Acting upon instructions given by their union last night, six hundred carriage workers began a strike here today. As a result of the action the principal industry of the town is badly crippled, though the manufacturers claim that they have 40 per cent. of their full number of employees at work. The men who are out maintain that the only carriage mechanics who reported today were those not members of the union.

The strikers some months ago demanded a nine-hour day, with an increase of wages amounting to 12 per cent. of the present schedule, but the manufacturers refused to accede.

Cabinet Takes Up Case and Decides Woman Must Act or Office be Closed.

Washington, Jan. 2.—The feature of the cabinet meeting today was the decision to close permanently the postoffice at Indianola, Miss., from which the postmistress, Minnie M. Cox, colored, resigned under compulsion, a few days ago, since which time the office has been closed. The bondsmen have brought the matter to the attention of the authorities here with the view to being relieved of the responsibility of the accumulated mail. The postmaster general has had a thorough investigation made and has become satisfied that the woman was obliged to resign under duress—in fact her life was endangered. Having represented this state of affairs to the cabinet, after a long discussion the decision above noted was reached and the office will not be reopened until the people in the district are ready to accept this woman as their postmaster.

The remainder of the meeting was consumed in the discussion of foreign affairs, especially the conditions in Venezuela. Secretary Hay presented a statement showing that no definite responses have been received from any of the allied powers to President Castro's last communication. It is evident that further negotiations will be required to bring the parties to a final agreement, but it is not doubted that this will succeed.

Cuba was the other subject which engrossed the attention of the cabinet and there was an anxious discussion of the prospects of the pending Cuban reciprocity treaty, the decision finally being reached to press the treaty forward on the same lines toward ratification.

OLD BAILIFF OUT,
NEW OFFICIAL INJ. H. Bilderback Has Succeeded Edward Quinn in the Superior Court.

After seven years of service as bailiff in the superior court, Edward Quinn was today succeeded by J. H. Bilderback, who was appointed to the place by Judge Heaton soon after the latter's election. The change was made solely as a result of the miniature political upheaval in this county at the recent election. Mr. Bilderback qualified at the opening of court this afternoon. He has been a solicitor for the Union Central Life Insurance company.

Mr. Quinn had grown to be a familiar figure about the superior court room. Everybody knew him, and he was immensely popular with all who have had business with the tribunal. He was first appointed to the place by Judge Dawson at the beginning of his second term in 1894; was reappointed at the beginning of the third term, but was displaced when Judge Dawson's death was followed by the appointment of Judge Vesey to the bench. For a year Mr. Quinn was connected with the waterworks department, but upon the accession of Judge Aiken to the superior bench he was again called in as court bailiff, serving through Judge Aiken's term and about six weeks of the term of Judge Heaton.

In parting with Mr. Quinn today Judge Heaton paid the very highest compliment to his efficiency, and it was plainly evident that the judge appreciated thoroughly the value of his services. Mr. Quinn was given full credit for a most admirable performance of his duties, not alone in the preservation of order with rare skill, but for the thoughtful attention with which he sought to assist the court in all matters which properly come within the jurisdiction of the bailiff. Mr. Quinn stated today that he had not yet determined his future course.

DECLARES WIFE DRUNKARD.

London, Jan. 2.—The first notable case under the new licensing act, which went into effect yesterday, came up in a London police court this afternoon when Sir Charles Allen Lawson, the Anglo-Indian newspaper editor and writer, applied for a summons against Lady Lawson, whom he described as a habitual drunkard. The summons was granted.

The new act enables either a husband or wife to secure a separation in the case of habitual drunkenness and allows the police to arrest an inebriate anywhere except in a private house, whether disorderly or not. After conviction drunkards are blacklisted for the space of three years. If they attempt to obtain drink during that period they are liable to a fine, while the publican supplying them is fined $50 for a first offense and $100 for second offense. Imprisonment is provided for drunkenness of a person in charge of a child under 7 years of age.

CASTRO DESIRE AS
TO AN ARBITRATORWanted an American Republic
But Roosevelt's Action
Balked That

Washington, Jan. 2.—The condition which President Castro attached to his response to the allies' arbitration proposal was in the nature of an alternative proposition. Almost from the beginning showing an aversion to The Hague tribunal, Castro, while accepting the principle of arbitration, asked that the case be tried by one of the American republics. As President Roosevelt already had declined to act in the capacity of arbitrator, and as some of the reasons which inspired him in his declaration would apply with equal force to the chief executive of any other American state than the United States, he was obliged to withhold any endorsement of this proposition of President Castro. Therefore it may be dismissed from the field of possibilities and, unless Castro is unexpectedly insistent upon his own plan, the original proposition of reference to The Hague tribunal will carry.

There were no developments over New Year's day in the way of cabigrams containing news from European capitals or from Venezuela.

TO URGE TUNNEL
MATTER AT ONCECity Seeks Immediate Action
Toward Securing Calhoun Street Subway.

OFFICIALS TALK IT OVER

Will Attempt to Bring Wabash
Officials Here for a Conference.

City officials are determined to secure the construction of a tunnel of subway beneath the tracks of the Pennsylvania and the Wabash railroads at Calhoun street, if possible without further delay. This is the outcome of a conference held morning between City A. Shambaugh and the three members constituting the board of works in the office of the city attorney.

For years this proposed improvement has been the theme of discussion at irregular intervals, and number of attempts have been made to get tangible action on the proposition, but from one cause and another the matter has ended in discussion, and the beginning of the work has been delayed.

Carefully kept statistics have made it evident that at least 25,000 people pass over the crossing question every day, to say nothing of the street cars, trucks, delivery wagons, carriages and other vehicles, and despite the utmost caution that can be observed hundreds of lives are placed in jeopardy daily. The Commercial club has taken turn or two at the question, and preparatory plans and estimates were prepared showing the probable cost of the subway.

Now that the sewer is out of the way for the time being, the municipal authorities have determined to take up the tunnel matter and drive it to a solution without unnecessary delay. The Pennsylvania company has repeatedly indicated its willingness to join in the construction of the work, but the Wabash company has been the delaying factor, not so when the matter of a subway Harrison street was under discussion. It is believed, however, that the Wabash will not offer any mountable objections to the plan of a tunnel at Calhoun street. City Attorney Shambaugh stated that that Mayor Berghoff would be asked to invite President Ramsey, of Wabash, to meet the city authorities with the idea of reaching some basis upon which the improvement could be secured without further delay.

BREAK AT STATION
LOWERS GAS SUPPLYRepairs are completed and Pumps Will Resume this Afternoon.

The breaking of a pump which supplies water to the boilers at the west pumping station of the Fort Wayne Gas company near Hartford City, necessitated the stopping of the big pumps at 9 o'clock this morning.

An hour later the drain upon the gas supply in Fort Wayne had proved so heavy that the gas was very low all over town and in many sections the fires went out altogether. A perfect deluge of inquiries poured into the company's office within few minutes. Patrons were assured that repairs were already in progress and that gas would be forthcoming this afternoon.

But one of the stations was shut down by the accident, and it illustrates the predicament the city would be in were it not for the big pumps which force the gas through the mains from the field to this city. At noon the water pump had been repaired and the work of filling the boilers was completed at 3 o'clock. Superintendent Hoffmann says the gas supply should be up to normal by 5 o'clock this afternoon.

IN JUSTICES' COURTS.

Pan Cake Talk.

DID IT EVER OCCUR TO YOU?

That most pancake flours are made to appeal to the taste only, and that the health of the user is entirely lost sight of in their preparation.

Many injurious ingredients are used and by their use poison is gradually taken into the system. Another great objection to the ordinary pancake is that they are heavy and indigestible. No other article of food is so likely to have this last named objection.

WINONA CAKES

are free from the above objections, as the flour is composed of nothing but pure, wholesome food products, and the cakes are light, wholesome and delicious.

NEW MAINE SHERIFFS STOP LIQUOR SELLING

Begin Terms With Fresh Effort to Enforce Prohibition Laws.

Portland, Maine, Jan. 2.—The induction into office of Maine's new sheriffs yesterday is regarded as the beginning of a fresh endeavor to enforce the prohibitory law. Some of these men unequivocally declared their purposes in this direction and gave all rum dealers time to get rid of their stock and to quit the business. These were for the most part men who had been elected on a straight out-and-out enforcement platform. Others have not openly declared their intentions in this particular regard, but have permitted the impression to get abroad that they will not brook any violation of the law.

Here in Cumberland county, where the attempt at enforcement by Rev. Samuel F. Pearson virtually cost him his life, his democratic successor, William H. Penhall, directed his liquor deputies as soon as they were sworn in yesterday to see that no saloonkeepers attempted to open for business. Mr. Penhall modestly says that "a green sheriff with a green set of subordinates" cannot well say what they will be able to accomplish in the way of enforcement, but he declared that all dealers who open their places will have to take the consequences of having them closed.

In Androscoggin county, where Rev. Charles S. Cummings won the republican shrievalty nomination, after the longest and bitterest convention battle known in the state, and was later endorsed by the prohibitionists, there is no doubt as to the future.

Rev. Mr. Cummings has declared that all infractions of the prohibitory law must cease and the dealers have taken him at his word. Today most of the saloons are out of commission and their stocks have either been shipped out of town or hidden.

Vermont will vote on a proposed high license-local option law in February. Meantime attempts to enforce prohibition are sporadic. About the same situation exists in New Hampshire, where the incoming legislature is expected to make some change in the liquor law.

SEAVEY EMPLOYEES DINE.

The annual banquet to the employees given by the Seavey Hardware company took place last evening at the Randall hotel, forty being seated at table. Walter Seavey presided, and while there were no speeches, several of the employees responded to their names by relating stories. The menu left nothing to be desired and the banquet was a most enjoyable one in every respect.

Mrs. Carrie Banning, the Misses Banning and Miss Greene were at home to visitors yesterday afternoon. The house was prettily decorated in holiday style.

TORTURING

DISFIGURING

Skin, Scalp and Blood

Humours

Speedily Cured by Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Pills

When the Best Physicians and All Else Fail.

The agonizing itching and burning of the skin, as in eczema; the frightful scaling, as in psoriasis; the loss of hair and crusting of the scalp, as in scalded head; the facial disfigurements, as in pimples and ringworm; the awful suffering of infants, and anxiety of worried parents, as in milk crust, tetter and salt rheum,—all demand a remedy of almost superhuman virtues to successfully cope with them. That Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Pills are such stands proven beyond all doubt. No statement is made regarding them that is not justified by the strongest evidence. The purity and sweetness, the power to afford immediate relief, the certainty of speedy and permanent cure, the absolute safety and great economy have made them the standard skin cures, blood purifiers and humor remedies of the civilized world.

Bathe the affected parts with hot water and Cuticura Soap, to cleanse the surface of crusts and scales, and soften the thickened cuticle. Dry, without hard rubbing, and apply Cuticura Ointment freely, to allay itching, irritation and inflammation, and soothe and heal, and, lastly, take the Cuticura Resolvent Pills, to cool and cleanse the blood. This complete treatment, costing but one dollar, affords instant relief, permits rest and sleep in the severest forms of eczema and other itching, burning and scaly humours of the skin, scalp and blood, and points to a speedy, permanent and economical cure when all other remedies and the best physicians fail.

THE OLD FOLKS HAD IT

It was as Common in Olden Times as Now to Have Rheumatism.

Don't "grin and bear it" any longer. It's all right to bear pain heroically when you have to, but it's unnecessary in this case. If you don't believe it let us tell you what we are doing for others. It's in your blood. Urine acid does it. We can do it all out of your system. We have been at it twenty years, in a quiet way, and have made thousands of friends by doing them good.

Our doctors have discovered a secret. Athlophoros will act right on the Urine acid, and you will be surprised to see the aches and pains gradually leave you. The twinges and cricks will become less and less, and you will find yourself going about your work naturally.

You will feel brighter, happier, and as if a big load had been taken away. One bottle of Athlophoros, from your druggist, will show if it is to help you, and would be cheap at ten times the money if it relieves your suffering. Send $1 to The Athlophoros Co., New Haven, Conn., if your druggist shouldn't have it.

STREET CAR RUNS AWAY

ON MAIN STREET LINE

Motorman Pitched From Car as It Was Running at High Speed—Bad Wreck.

Motorman Frank D. Bink was thrown from the front end of his car yesterday as it was going ahead at full speed and the car ran off the track at the end of the line, where it bumped into a telegraph pole and was demolished.

The car is on the Main street line and as it was approaching the curve near the Lindenwood end of the line Baker reached down to open the gate so as not to lose any time in turning around. When the car struck the curve the sudden jolt pitched the motorman headforemost to the side of the track. The car sped on, gaining momentum every minute and finally struck the end of the line and the telephone pole with terrible force. The conductor, George Woodford, was inside of the car figuring up his accounts at the time of the accident and did not notice the car running away until it was too late to stop. He jumped and was only slightly injured.

The front end of the car was badly wrecked and the fender was smashed to pieces. When the car following arrived the disabled one was hauled back onto the track and taken to the barn.

LORD ROBERTS WILL VISIT UNITED STATES

To be Guest of Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Boston.

Boston, Jan. 2.—Lord Roberts of Kandahar, otherwise "Bobs," the idol of Tommy Atkins and the conqueror of Cronje, has accepted the invitation of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Boston to be its guest at the company's field day next September. Capt. Thomas Jefferson Olys, of the Ancients, so announced last night.

Invitations have been sent to the prince of Wales and the duke of Connaught. These royal personages, it is reported, are considering, but have not yet signified their determination to come over. King Edward was the honorary colonel of the London Honorable Artillery Company before his accession.

The London company, Lieutenant Colonel Lord Denbigh commanding, will return the historic visit of the Boston Ancients in '96, when they hobnobbed with British royalty. Two warships will meet the steamer off the harbor and escort them into port.

The preparations for the entertainment of the English guests are elaborate. There will be a banquet to 1,000 persons in the Mechanics' building and a spread to the visitors at Hotel Somerset that is intended to put that given Prince Henry of Prussia in eclipse. There will be a parade of Boston streets, a review on the common and private and public hospitality without stint.

A tour in a special train of new sumptuous Pullmans is projected, to include Montreal, Toronto and West Point. Other places will doubtless be included. In compliment to the guests, the cars, which are not yet built, will be given English names.

MUTE MOVED TO SAY THINGS.

(Decatur Democrat.)

A deaf and dumb printer, aged about 30, was found on the street Monday night by a number of young men on their way home from the dance. The stranger was nearly starved and suffering from the cold, being unable to make anyone understand him. The boys took the suffering man to a restaurant and gave him such a feast as he had not tasted in years, then gave him some money, a ticket to Marion, Ohio, and sent him on his way rejoicing. The poor traveler broke down completely and wept like a child, saying in all his travels he had never met with such kindness.

BIG LIFT FOR OHIO WESLEYAN.

Cleveland, Jan. 2.—The completion of the twentieth century thank offering of $200,000, which was announced at midnight Wednesday night in Springfield, Mass., means $1,000,000 for Ohio Wesleyan university at Delaware. This fund was begun by the Methodists of the United States in 1893 to provide for supernumerary ministers, endow educational institutions of the church and establish hospitals and other charitable institutions. In the apportioning of this money Ohio Wesleyan was allotted $1,000,000. Other Methodist colleges will also be assisted.

SENATOR QUAY MAY RETIRE.

Washington, Jan. 2.—Senator Quay is expected to return tonight from Florida. According to advices received the trip did not do him as much good as expected. A Prosperous Year...

THE past year has been a prosperous one for this city and county. Nowhere, probably, is this condition more apparent than within the vault and books of our bank. Never before have we had so many depositors; and never before have we had so much money on deposit, the amount of deposits at this time being $917,305.80. Surely, we are not mistaken when we say that the year of 1902 was a prosperous one for the people of this community, which also meant much for the bank.

EMPLOYEES TO SHARE
STEEL TRUST'S PROFITS

Will Be Sold Stock Below the Market Price—Plan is Made Public.

New York, Jan. 1.—In a double circular, one to the stockholders and the other to the employees, the United States Steel corporation has announced its intention to institute a system whereby each employee, even the humblest workman on its rolls, may become a permanent stockholder and share in the profits of the corporation. The scheme is the result of months of preparation by the finance committee of the corporation and the circulars are signed by George W. Perkins, chairman. The plan is said to have originated with Mr. Perkins, who is a member of the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co. of this city.

The circular to the stockholders points out the apparent advantage of the plan which was devised "with equal fairness to every man, from the president of the steel corporation itself to the man with pick and shovel working for one of the subsidiary companies."

The circular goes on to say that at this time there are about 55,000 stockholders, who, it is believed, would feel a greater sense of security in the corporation's earning power if they knew that officers and managers generally were willing to enter into a contract by which part of their compensation for services rendered shall be paid for only after the realization of $80,000,000 of profits. This represents interest on bonds, dividends on stocks and reserve for sinking funds.

DIVIDING INTO CLASSES.
The plan inviting officers and employees to participate is divided into two parts. Part 1 prescribes that from the earnings of the corporation during the year 1902 there will have been set aside at least $2,000,000 and as much more as is needed for the purchase of at least 25,000 shares of preferred stock, which will be offered to employees of the corporation and constituent companies. At present the corporation and subsidiary companies employ about 108,000 men, whom it is proposed to divide into these six classes:

Class A—All those who receive salaries of $20,000 a year or over.
Class B—All those who receive salaries of from $10,000 to $20,000 a year.
Class C—All those who receive salaries of from $5,000 to $10,000 a year.
Class D—All those who receive salaries of from $2,500 to $5,000 a year.
Class E—All those who receive salaries of from $800 to $2,500 a year.
Class F—All those who receive salaries of $800 a year or less.

HOW EMPLOYEES MAY BUY.
The preferred stock will be offered to any employee during January at $82.50 a share. Its closing price for the day was $85.87½. Employees can subscribe for an amount of stock not exceeding the sum represented by a certain percentage of their annual salaries as shown in this table.

Class B—Eight per cent.
Class C—Ten per cent.
Class D—Twelve per cent.
Class E—Fifteen per cent.
Class F—Twenty per cent.

In part 2 of the plan it is explained that the corporation has been and is now making changes in the salaries of men occupying official or semi-official positions and the directors have approved these recommendations of the finance committee:

Whenever $80,000,000 and less than $90,000,000 is earned during 1903, 1 per cent. shall be set aside.
Whenever $90,000,000 and less than $100,000,000 is earned during 1903, 1.2 per cent. shall be set aside.
Whenever $100,000,000 and less than $110,000,000 is earned during 1903, 1.4 per cent. shall be set aside.
Whenever $110,000,000 and less than $120,000,000 is earned during 1903, 1.6 per cent. shall be set aside.
Whenever $120,000,000 and less than $130,000,000 is earned during 1903, 1.8 per cent. shall be set aside.
Whenever $130,000,000 and less than $140,000,000 is earned during 1903, 2 per cent. shall be set aside.
Whenever $140,000,000 and less than $150,000,000 is earned during 1903, 2½ per cent. shall be set aside.
Whenever $150,000,000 and less than $160,000,000 is earned during 1903, 3 per cent. shall be set aside.

PLAN TO SHARE PROFIT.
The question of what constitutes profits is to be determined entirely by the finance committee, which will have no interest in the profit-sharing plan. If $80,000,000 is earned in the coming year $800,000 will be set aside, one-half to be distributed in cash quarterly, the other half to be reserved until the end of the year, invested in preferred stock; the stock thus purchased to be divided one-half to employees entitled thereto, the other half to remain with the treasurer of the corporation. Each shareholder is to receive a certificate for his interest, containing these provisions:

1. If he remains continuously in the service of the corporation or of one or another of its subsidiary companies for five years the stock shall be delivered to him and he may do as he likes with it.

2. If he dies or becomes totally or permanently disabled while in the employ of the corporation or of one or another of its subsidiary companies the stock will be delivered to his estate or to him.

3. He can draw the dividends declared on the stock while it is held for his account and he remains in the employ of the corporation or of one or another of its subsidiary companies.

4. If without previous consent voluntarily he shall have quitted the employ of the corporation or of its subsidiary companies he shall forfeit all right to this stock and in such case it will be held in a fund, which at the end of five years will be divided among such employees as shall have complied with all the conditions.

FUND SET ASIDE FOR ALL.
Thus 25 per cent. of all the money set aside in this profit-sharing plan will be held for five years and will be given to such only as at the end of that period shall have been in the employ of the corporation or of one or another of its subsidiary companies since Jan. 1, 1903.

High officials of the steel corporation declined to discuss the reported approaching retirement of President Schwab.

between the two lines and Honolulu by the ship. There was joy on board the Silvertown when the extraordinary strain which had rested upon the entire staff for nineteen days came to an end. Mr. Benest, the engineer in charge of the expedition, expressed much relief that the great task had been completed without accident.

Four hours were spent in testing and allowing the recently laid line to acquire the temperature of the ocean depths. At 8:40 p. m., Honolulu time, came the first call from San Francisco.

MESSAGE TO PRESIDENT.

Washington, Jan. 2.—The following cablegram was received at the white house at 2:30 o'clock this morning, dated Honolulu, Jan. 1, 9:33 p. m.:

"The President, Washington: The people of the territory of Hawaii send their greetings to you and express their gratification at the inauguration of telegraphic communication with the mainland. We all believe that the removal of the disadvantage of isolation will prove the strong factor in the upbuilding of a patriotic and progressive American commonwealth in these islands."

(Signed) "Henry E. Cooper, Secretary of Hawaii."

The president's response was as follows:
"White House, Washington, Jan. 2, 1903. Henry E. Cooper, Secretary of Hawaii, Honolulu, Hawaii: The president sends through you to Governor Dole and the people of Hawaii his hearty congratulations upon the opening of the cable. He believes that it will tend to knit the people of Hawaii more closely than ever to their fellow citizens of the mainland and will be for the great advantage of all our people."
(Signed) "George B. Cortelyou, Secretary to the President."

FIRE HORSES AS PETS.

The horses of the New York fire department receive more petting probably than any other horses in the world. In nearly every engine house each of the stalls bears the name of the horse occupying it, large black letters on aluminum marking the quarters of "Tom," "Harry," "Dick" or "Major," as the case may be. The firemen are proud of their dumb friends and not only do everything possible to make them comfortable when they are off duty, but take pleasure in providing them with little luxuries and tidbits. Leaf sugar, nougat and other candies are purchased by one fireman or another in each engine house almost every day and passersby may often see the horses eating the sweets from the hands of their men friends.

AN ILL YEAR.

Old Moore's almanac for the first six months of 1903 has just been published in London and some very gloomy predictions appear in it.

In January, it says, there will be troubles in the east and a conspiracy in Ireland; in February there will be trouble and bloody riot in Spain; in March both Great Britain and Spain will meet with serious losses, the former in the Transvaal and the latter in the latter at home; in April there will be political assassinations in England, furious conflicts in China and conspiracies in Turkey; in May there will be a famine in India and a civil war in Spain, and in June a prosperous epoch will begin for England and one of misfortune for Germany.

Wash. Bolders, Wingers, etc., are cheap at the Fruit House.

COURTS RESUME AFTER
NEW YEAR'S VACATION

Judge Adair Sitting as Special Judge—Minor News of the Courts.

Both the circuit and the superior courts resumed their sessions today after the New Year's vacation. In the circuit court Judge O'Rourke called the claim docket and transacted some routine matters. The superior court did not convene until this afternoon, and Judge Heaton took up answers to a number of cases which had been set for today.

In the circuit court Judge J. W. Adair is sitting as special judge in the grand jury room, hearing exceptions to the report of the commissioners, which had been appointed to partition the Branstrator estate. The remonstrants include nearly half the heirs.

ABOUT THE COURTS.

A new suit growing out of the construction of the South Wayne sewer was filed today when Byron S. Thompson began action in the superior court against John T. Adams and the American Surety company on bond, demanding $500. The amount is alleged to be due for brick which Mr. Thompson furnished Adams, and for which complete payment has not been made. B. F. Harper is plaintiff's attorney.

Adam Collis has brought suit against Amelia Killian and her husband, Joseph Killian, on notes and mortgage and asking for the appointment of a receiver for the real estate of the defendants. The claim is $2,500. Breen & Morris are plaintiff's attorneys.

William Clutter, the newly appointed deputy clerk for the superior court, took his place at the desk today. He will be assisted for the time being by Deputy Clerk Bueter.

John Wilson, sent over a few days ago by Judge Dreherbass on a charge of vagrancy, paid out today and was released from the county jail. Wilson was the fellow caught peeping into residences on Spy Run avenue.

During the past year the county clerk issued a total of 762 marriage licenses. In the same period 138 applications for divorce were filed in the county courts.

The county commissioners will be in session tomorrow to transact office business of a routine nature.

In the superior court Matilda A. Omo has brought suit against Robert B. Shirley on note. The demand is $175, and J. B. Harper and J. H. Eckels are attorneys.

The case of Henry D. McMaken vs. the Fort Wayne and Southwestern Traction company has been appealed from Justice Skelton to the circuit court. The action grew out of the killing of a cow by a car on the interurban some weeks ago. Justice Skelton awarded $50 damages, and the traction company has appealed.

SOME EYE-OPENERS.

The British industrial commission has accomplished its rapid tour in the United States, says the London Morning Post. The workmen who compose the commission have been everywhere well received and entertained with a generous hospitality and it is likely enough that they have looked at all that has been shown them through the rosier spectacles. Discounting that kind of bias, however, there is evidently much that has been exhibited that deserves the name of "eye-opener," which, we are told, has now become a somewhat familiar word among the workmen when they recount what they have seen and heard. Indeed, Mr. Wilkinson, who represents the Lancashire cotton industry, seems likely to return to his native country as the queen of Sheba returned from her visit to King Solomon with the declaration that "half was not told me." Mr. Wilkinson further declares that what he will have to tell his fellow workmen in Lancashire is so astonishing that he scarcely hopes to be believed. In Rhode Island and other cotton centers he found mills larger than those in Lancashire all fitted with the newest labor-saving plant—which was truly so new that he was shown broken spinning mules got new from Manchester "exactly two years ago" on the scrap heap, being superseded by later and presumably better machinery. How perfect that new machinery is may be guessed from the fact that operations are performed automatically which are still done by hand in Lancashire and which "Lancashire experts" regard as quite impossible for machines, and that while Lancashire weavers only manage to look after four or six looms, many American weavers look after twenty. It is much too premature to form any general conclusion regarding the general superiority of the methods or the machinery of the United States compared with those of Great Britain, but certainly the concrete facts cited concerning the cotton industry are startling. Lancashire was once the home of invention, and if Lancashire machinery and methods have been beaten, then it must be because Lancashire has been dozing or "going slow," for it is not many years since the American cotton industry began by taking lessons from Lancashire. It is probable, however, that Lancashire will wait till it hears Mr. Wilkinson's full report before it discomposes itself.

A SIMPLE TRICK.

No simple little trick is more astonishing than the one herein described. Any boy or girl can perform it, or, rather, can make it perform itself, and it will excite no end of wonder among those who try it. Take an ordinary sheet of paper and draw on it as well as you can a picture of an empty bird cage, and near it, on the right a picture of a bird. No particular skill is needed, but the better the pictures are drawn the more natural, of course, will everything appear.

Now say to the spectators—for we are assuming that you are performing the trick for the amusement of a company—that you can and will make any one of them, one at a time, see the bird actually enter the cage, says the Ohio State Journal.

Of course they will laugh at you and say that what you propose is absurd, for how can the picture of a bird move and enter the picture of a cage? Let us tell you how.

Now take an ordinary visiting card, and, holding it between your thumb and finger, let it touch the paper on the line between the cage and the bird. Place yourself opposite to the light, whether from a window or a gas jet, so that the card will not throw a shadow, and then press your nose against the edge of the card and look at the two pictures.

Thus you will see the bird with your right eye and the cage with your left, and for an instant they will both seem stationary. Then all at once the bird will appear to move toward the cage and finally enter it, just as if it had life and had gone in through a door.

If your puzzled friends desire an explanation of the phenomenon refer them to the chapter on optics in their Natural Philosophy.

is quite extraordinary that an American should consult a Viennese physician when troubled with a headache. From what part of the country you come? he inquired. I told him that my home was in Philadelphia. At that his eyebrows rose strangely, and he fairly gasped. "Philadelphia?" he exclaimed. "To Vienna to be cured of a headache when you live in Philadelphia?" He made no effort to conceal his amazement, the cause of which, could not imagine. "Why not?" he asked. "Because," he replied, "you have in Philadelphia the greatest and most famous nerve specialist in the world." And who is he, pray? I asked. Much to my surprise, and you can imagine the blush mounted to my cheek—he replied, "His name is Dr. S. Weir Mitchell—he is the most famous." I concluded then that he had not been informed of his American patient's name, and I consider the compliment he so unwittingly paid me quite the most delightful experience of that European trip.

A NATURAL THEORY.

It was the first time six-year-old Margery had ever been to the theatre. She nestled by her mother's side with very wide, observant eyes, and watched the stage. It was during a pathetic scene, where the heroine was sent from home out into a blinding snow storm, and the effect was quite realistic. The little girl evidently could not understand this and she drew her mother's head down and whispered in her ear.

"Mamma," she said, "how do they get snow inside the house?"

Her mother smiled. "That isn't real snow," she replied. "It's only paper."

Margery was quick of thought. "Then the angels must be making paper dolls in heaven tonight," she remarked with wise speculation, everyone along the row of seats burst into laughter.

A GREAT WORK BEING DONE BY DR. WHARTON

Is Devoted to Orphanages—Began as Lawyer and Ended in Ministry.

Rev. Dr. Henry M. Wharton, who will begin a month's gospel campaign in Fort Wayne with a mass meeting in the Masonic Temple Sunday afternoon, is now a citizen of Philadelphia, but for twenty years was pastor of Brantly Baptist church, Baltimore.

The following is taken from the Louisville Courier-Journal:

He has gained great renown as pastor of churches, pulpit orator and evangelist, but his fame as founder of orphanages and schools speaks loudest for his qualities of heart and head.

Dr. Wharton has had a varied career. Born in the Luray valley of Virginia, his first contact with life's realities was in the civil war, which, throughout the struggle, showed the strongest predilection for this valley as the choicest stage upon which to play its part. Dr. Wharton entered the confederate service in 1862, at the age of 15, and was in at the superb finish. His martial appetite was not yet satisfied and, accordingly, he joined the band of confederates who wished to fight for Maximilian. The party reached Mexico, founded the city of Carlotta, but their entire venture was as ill-omened as the name of the city they brought into being.

Dr. Wharton then took the law course at the University of Virginia, and practiced his profession for a few years in Lynchburg, but soon abandoned it to enter the ministry. Dr. Wharton, in his evangelistic work, was frequently associated with Mr. Dwight L. Moody, and under the instructions of Mr. Moody and of the International Y. M. C. A., he preached to soldiers at Tampa during the Spanish war. Dr. Wharton is a man of splendid presence. As a speaker his style is marked by its simplicity and freedom from rhetorical blemish. He is direct and strikes straight out. His diction is marked by its purity and the overflowing fund of anecdotes aids materially in strengthening the moral to the great story he has to tell.

A few years ago three penniless little children presented themselves to Dr. Wharton in Baltimore. Their father had been killed, and their mother was in the penitentiary. A widow and her niece agreed to take these children in their home, on condition that they were clothed and fed. In less than a year there were some fifteen or twenty, and soon the house became too small. A larger one was secured, and still a larger one in three years. Then they were moved to a farm at Luray, Va., where the climatic conditions are the very best. This work has gone on for ten or twelve years, and there are now eight cottages and over sixty children in what is known as the Industrial Home. The children, boys and girls, are taught to work, and in every way carefully trained, and when ready to start in life every effort is made to secure them employment. They are never sent out as servants.

During Dr. Wharton's work among the soldiers at Tampa he was informed that the government made no provision for the orphans of soldiers and sailors. He then offered the use of the orphanages to the secretary of war as a home for them. The offer was accepted and there are now a number of children at Luray whose fathers lost their lives for their country.

It is now Dr. Wharton's purpose to erect on the farm at Luray a building to cost about $25,000, for the sole care of the orphan children of soldiers and sailors of the United States army and navy.

Dr. Wharton also established a school for girls at Luray, which has had a marked success and has conspired work. Among the girls at this school is the only child of a widowed mother. Her father was formerly a confederate soldier, and when the war with Spain was declared he enlisted as a private soldier in the United States army. Last summer he died in Havana.

Dr. Wharton is at the present time particularly interested in the movement to erect at Luray a memorial to Miss Winnie Davis, the beloved "Daughter of the Confederacy." This memorial will be no useless figure carved in stone or molded in brass.

but will be a home for the widows and orphans of the Lost Cause.

This is the work now dearest to his heart. Already he has opened on the Luray farm a "Winnie Davis Cottage" for the reception of orphans of southern soldiers, and he is particularly anxious to raise at once $5,000 with which to open a cottage for soldiers' widows.

The Winnie Davis memorial will cost $25,000, and it will be in the highest sense a memorial to a woman who is loved and revered by thousands throughout the country—north and south—as a typical American woman in all that this name implies.

A JUDGE SELLS JOBS.

Evansville, Ind., Jan. 2.—Acknowledgment has been made by Louis O. Rasch, judge of the circuit court, that he had accepted money for political appointments at his disposal. He denies intention of wrong doing, saying he had asked John A. Sanders, bailiff, for $200 and A. C. Hawkins, probate commissioner, for $750 to help defray the campaign expenses and these amounts they willingly agreed to pay.

Sanders' money was accepted but returned next day after a committee of members of the bar visited the judge and pointed out the seriousness of his act. Commissioner Hawkins, according to Judge Rasch, did not pay any part of his assessment. Judge Rasch is a republican. He is thirty-six years old. His brother, Edward, retired from the county recorder's office yesterday after eight years' incumbency. The judge is almost prostrated over the exposure. His only justification is that he was acting in good faith with his men and took what he received from them in the nature of a contribution to his campaign fund.

GERMANY'S MADE LARGER.

Berlin, Jan. 2.—Partial returns from the consular districts indicate that Germany's exports to the United States increased in 1902, by about $5,000,000 over those of 1901. The net increases in nine districts of North Germany alone amount to $2,985,071, chiefly in textiles. Bremen and Mandebug showed decreases together of $2,500,000, principally in sugar. The imports from the United States fell off, but no reliable figures are available.

BULGARIANS SLAY TURKS.

Constantinople, Jan. 2.—In a recent fight between Bulgarians and Turkish troops at the village of Drenovo, in the Monastir district, fifteen of the latter were killed or wounded. The Turkish commander was among the killed. The Bulgarians, who were barricaded in a house, also sustained losses, but the survivors escaped.

SOUZA IN ENGLAND.

Southampton, England, Jan. 2.—The American line steamer St. Louis, from New York, Dec. 24, arrived here about 6 o'clock this morning, having been delayed by bad weather. Souza and his bandmen, who were passengers on the St. Louis, will have their opening performance in London tonight.

INSANE MAN WAS ARMED.

New York, Jan. 2.—A man, apparently insane, tried to gain entrance to the private office of General Greene, the new police commissioner, at police headquarters, today, saying that he was the new commissioner. Inspector Brooks inveigled him to the Mulberry street station. Two loaded revolvers were found in his coat pockets.

EMBEZZLED LARGE SUM.

London, Jan. 2.—G. H. Elder was remanded at the Guild Hall police court today, charged on his own confession with having embezzled $75,000 from his employers, Brown, Shipley & Co., the American bankers. The embezzlements had been going on for three years.

ARCHDUKE SUPPOSED TO BE DEAD IS ALIVE

Renounced Titles and Took Humble Name—Archduke Leopold Tells Story.

New York, Jan. 2.—Archduke Leopold, who assisted his sister, the crown princess of Saxony, in her elopement with her children's French tutor, has made the sensational statement to a reporter of Die Zeit, according to the American's Vienna correspondent, that Archduke Johann Nepomuk Salvator, who renounced his titles and took the name of John Orth, and was supposed to have perished in a shipwreck off the South American coast, is really alive.

Johann Orth was, or is, an uncle of Leopold and of the crown princess. Like his nephew, he left the court to go with an actress. Fraulein Mizzi Strubel was with Johann Orth when he disappeared.

Archduke Leopold says he believes his uncle is living with the Archduke Louis Salvator, brother to John Orth, and also to the present grand duke of Tuscany. Archduke Louis is eccentric and spends ten months of the year on a tiny Ionian isle and the rest of his time on a yacht.

FIGHT AGAINST SALOONS.

Brazil, Ind., Jan. 2.—A desperate fight is being waged in Perry township, this county, between the Anti-Saloon league and the liquor element, and the affair is being fought out between the county commissioners here this week.

The league filed a blanket remonstrance against every saloon in Perry township, and the remonstrance contained sufficient signatures to wipe out all saloons in that township. When the remonstrance was called for a few days ago it was missing.

The league charges that its opponents stole the paper. It put forces in the field and today filed a new and larger remonstrance than the one that is missing.

FIRES FROM HIGH PRESSURE.

A rise in the gas pressure last evening between 6 and 8 o'clock is alleged to be responsible for two fires, one at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Morgan, of 92 Wagner street, and the other at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dayton Janness, of 1029 Walters street. Mr. and Mrs. Morgan went to the country to visit friends yesterday morning and neglected to turn down their kitchen fire. After the pressure increased in the evening the stove became red hot and set fire to the kitchen. The blaze was discovered by neighbors, who formed a bucket brigade and made an unsuccessful attempt to subdue the flames. The chemical engine responded to a telephone call and the fire was soon extinguished. The neighbors succeeded in saving most of the furniture. The entire roof was burned away, and the loss will be several hundred dollars, covered by insurance.

The fire in Mr. Janness' home started in the same manner and an alarm was sent in from No. 4 engine house. The residence belongs to Mrs. Swain and the damage will amount to about $300. The household furniture was damaged considerably and is uninsured. Mr. and Mrs. Janness have lived in the house but ten days.

The president shook hands with a thousand people New Years, a happy day.

Venezuela will behave herself, revolutions and other Latin-American versions, by the time the tribunal finishes her case. I have enough in the state to pay the powers and celebrate the event.

Probably if the people of this country could have assurance that present conditions are to be permanent throughout 1903, they would ask that there be any improvement. The outlook is pretty good, but that improvement will be whether the people ask for it or not.

Stout announces that he will order the slot machines from the Allen county outside the and will remove them himself, his order is not obeyed. We hope the power task is completed. He has authority to clean the county of the machine scourge and no better way to his hand than to do it.

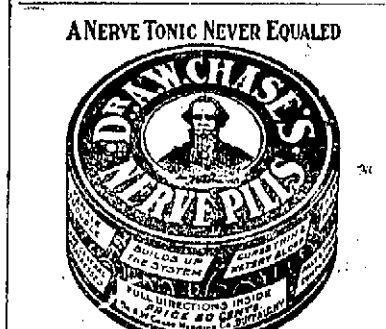

The great trouble with the New resolution is that the resolute will wants to wind up his wickedness in a blaze of glory, so to speak. The post New Years head is before more apt to be filled with joy, though temporary, remorse enduring resolution. The perfect convalescence generally marks the duration of reform, which is a man who breaks a solemn engagement with his own conscience much to be depended upon in affairs where his word is given.

bill will be introduced in the session of the Indiana legislature to make appropriation for an Indiana building and exhibit at the purchase exposition in St. Louis. There probably will and certainly ought to be no opposition to the measure. While Indiana is not a territory acquired by the purchase the state's his associations, its growth and has been closely identified with the growth of the states carved out of the Louisiana territory. Our trade relations and provincial sentiments as one of the states of the great Mississippi valley would seem to dictate a place of prominence in the St. Louis exposition. And if it is decided to have an Indiana building, let the appropriation be sufficient to insure a structure of imposing size and dignified character. Indiana did not appear well at the world's fair in Chicago.

There need be no hesitation of the authorities to close the gambling places from any compunctions of modesty and dislike of doing unusual things. Gambling is going under the ban in more cities than one. In New York District Attorney Jerome is waging the finest kind of a fight against the evil. He is in hot pursuit of the "big fellows," who run the gilded places. In Cincinnati, a city of no great repute for law enforcement, Mayor Fleischman has given orders to the police to close the gambling dens and the good work is going on. Public sentiment is becoming less and less tolerant of the gambling evil and the officers who do not do their duty in dealing with it are inviting the wrath of the people. If gambling has been stopped in Fort Wayne, let it be compelled to remain so. If it is still going on, officers duty is the matter is clear. It is an industry that creates nothing, employs few, and robs many. Its victims are the most part of a class who can no wise afford to lose their money. In general it is an evil that is demoralizing to any community that tolerates it. Fort Wayne does not want to be that kind of a city. Wipe it out and keep it wiped out.

KEPT THE DAY AS IT IS KEPT IN KENTUCKY

Two Men Terrorize a Neighborhood With Their Guns-- Police Notes.

Henry Collins and Emil Fabery, from Kentucky, started in yesterday to celebrate New Years in good old Kentucky style, and in doing so came near wounding one man and frightened several women nearly to death.

The two men room in the Oetting building, at Eliza and Ohio streets, and have been in this city for about a year, coming from Lincoln county, Ky. Yesterday afternoon they started out to celebrate the first of the year in the way they were accustomed to. They oiled up their guns, which had lain idle for a year, and began pumping bullets into the walls and ceiling of their room. Finding this sport too tame, they gave the hallway a touch of high life, and then went outside and began shooting up and down the street. Frank Ross, who lives across the street, came out to see what the cause of the noise was and just as he stepped out the door a ball embedded itself in the door frame, not three inches above his head.

About this time the neighborhood became thoroughly alarmed and a call was sent to police headquarters. The report was that there were six men at the house and on the strength of this report a riot call was sent in and Sergeants Harkner and Phillips, Detective Rulo and Patrolmen Collins, Richardson and Strodel responded. When the officers arrived they found that the men had barricaded the doors and were behind them with drawn revolvers, threatening to kill the first man who dared to enter. When, however, they found that the officers were in earnest, they surrendered. The police found two large revolvers of 38 calibre in the room and numerous bullet holes where the men had fired shots into the sides of the room. The women in the house were huddled into one room and had been there all afternoon badly frightened by the continual shooting.

The men had no idea that they were doing anything very wrong and to them it seemed ridiculous that they should be arrested for such a thing. Some one had told them that on New Years they could shoot all they wanted to, and as they had been longing for this opportunity ever since they left home they made the best of it.

This morning in police court they looked anything but bold men and their actions showed that they were new to the ways of police courts. On account of their evident intention of doing no wrong, the judge made their fine $2 and costs, a very light one for such an offense.

Officer Kelley found a bay horse standing at the corner of Calhoun and Jefferson streets and put it up at the Myers livery barn. It was 9:30 o'clock at the time and the horse had been standing there since 5 o'clock.

The patrol wagon answered a call from the corner of Calhoun and Baker streets. There was nothing for the officers to do when they arrived. Who sent in the call was not learned.

GETS COAL WITH A PISTOL.

Detroit, Mich., Jan. 1.—Detroit citizens apparently are getting desperate over the hard coal famine. Wednesday afternoon Mrs. W. T. Richardson, a boarding house keeper, obtained a ton of anthracite coal from Stanley B. Smith & Co. at the muzzle of a revolver.

Samuel J. Boden, a clerk for the coal firm, refused point blank to give Mrs. Richardson's son an order for the coal. She then took her husband's revolver from the bureau drawer and drove to the coal office. She got the coal.

"I thought it was about time some of the dealers were held up," she said yesterday morning. "I requested Boden to give me an order in a most ladylike manner and made a tender of $7.50. He refused."

"I told him I usually got what I want after. He declared I would not catch him asleep. In a fraction of a second Boden was looking into the barrel of the revolver and he changed his mind. The funny part of it is that the revolver was not loaded."

Mr. Smith, the coal dealer, refused to talk about the affair yesterday afternoon, although he would not deny the facts.

DOG SAVED MASTER FROM ASPHYXIA

Family of H. H. Hunt May Owe Lives to Sagacious Canine

Members of the family of Hanley H. Hunt are today congratulating themselves over their narrow escape from possible death, and believe that they owe their lives to the faithfulness and remarkable sagacity of a dog owned by the family.

Mr. Hunt is a teamster for Kruse & Busching, and resides with his family at 219 East Superior street. The dog is occasionally permitted to sleep in the house and last night Mr. Hunt was awakened by the animal jumping upon his bed and barking furiously.

Suspecting that burglars were attempting to force an entrance into his home Mr. Hunt jumped from his bed, and was nearly overcome by the fumes of escaping gas. Investigation showed that the blaze in the heating stove had gone out, and that the unburned gas was pouring into the sleeping apartments in large quantities. Bad results must have inevitably followed additional delay in the discovery of the leak, for the fumes were already overpowering other sleeping members of the family. The gas was quickly shut off and the house thoroughly ventilated, so that the family suffered but little from the experience.

The meeting will also act upon the request of Rev. E. H. Montgomery to be received into the presbytery and to place in his hands a call from the Presbyterian church at Warsaw.

OF IMPORTANCE TO ROGUES.

New York, Jan. 2.—The right of the police to keep a man's photograph in the "Rogues' Gallery" is to be decided by the courts. Jacob Owen today secured from Justice Scott, in the supreme court, an order directing Police Commissioner Greene, to show cause why he and the officials of the detective bureau should not be restrained from keep-

A Weak Stomach

Indigestion is often caused by over-eating. An eminent authority says the harm done thus exceeds that from the excessive use of alcohol. Eat all the good food you want but don't over-load the stomach. A weak stomach may refuse to digest what you eat. Then you need a good digestant like Kodol, which digests your food without the stomach's aid. This rest and the wholesome tonics Kodol contains soon restore health. Dieting unnecessary. Kodol quickly relieves the feeling of fullness and bloating from which some people suffer after meals. Absolutely cures indigestion.

A GREAT WORK BEING DONE BY DR. WHARTON

Is Devoted to Orphanages--Began as Lawyer and Ended in Ministry.

Rev. Dr. Henry M. Wharton, who will begin a month's gospel campaign in Fort Wayne with a mass meeting in the Masonic Temple Sunday afternoon, is now a citizen of Philadelphia, but for twenty years was pastor of Brantly Baptist church, Baltimore.

The following is taken from the Louisville Courier-Journal:

He has gained great renown as pastor of churches, pulpit orator and evangelist, but his fame as founder of orphanages and schools speaks loudest for his qualities of heart and head.

Dr. Wharton has had a varied career. Born in the Luray valley of Virginia, his first contact with life's realities was in the civil war, which, throughout the struggle, showed the strongest predilection for this valley as the choicest stage upon which to play its part. Dr. Wharton entered the confederate service in 1864, at the age of 15, and was in at the superb finish. His martial appetite was not yet satisfied and, accordingly, he joined the band of confederates who wished to fight for Maximilian. The party reached Mexico, founded the city of Carlotta, but their entire venture was as ill-omened as the name of the city they brought into being.

Dr. Wharton then took the law course at the University of Virginia, and practiced his profession for a few years in Lynchburg, but soon abandoned it to enter the ministry. Dr. Wharton, in his evangelistic work, was frequently associated with Mr. Dwight L. Moody, and under the instructions of Mr. Moody and of the International Y. M. C. A., he preached to soldiers at Tampa during the Spanish war. Dr. Wharton is a man of splendid presence. As a speaker his style is marked by its simplicity and freedom from rhetorical blenheim. His is direct and strikes straight out. His diction is marked by its purity and the overflowing fund of anecdotes aids materially in strengthening the moral to the great story he has to tell.

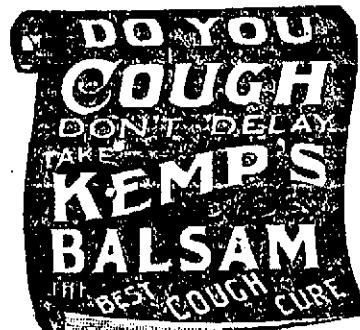

A few years ago three penniless little children presented themselves to Dr. Wharton in Baltimore. Their father had been killed, and their mother was in the penitentiary. A widow and her niece agreed to take these children in their home, on condition that they were clothed and fed. In less than a year there were some fifteen or twenty, and soon the house became too small. A larger one was secured, and still a larger one in three years. Then they were moved to a farm at Luray, Va., where the climatic conditions are the very best. This work has gone on for ten or twelve years, and there are now eight cottages and over sixty children in what is known as the Industrial Home. The children, boys and girls, are taught to work, and in every way carefully trained, and when ready to start in life every effort is made to secure them employment. They are never sent out as servants.

During Dr. Wharton's work among the soldiers at Tampa, he was informed that the government made no provision for the orphans of soldiers and sailors. He then offered the use of the orphanages to the secretary of war as a home for them. The offer was accepted and there are now a number of children at Luray whose fathers lost their lives for their country.

It is now Dr. Wharton's purpose to erect on the farm at Luray a building to cost about $25,000, for the sole care of the orphan children of soldiers and sailors of the United States army and navy.

Dr. Wharton also established a school for girls at Luray, which has had a marked success and has considerable work. Among the girls at this school is the only child of a widowed mother. Her father was formerly a confederate soldier, and when the war with Spain was declared he enlisted as a private soldier in the United States army. Last summer he died in Havana.

Dr. Wharton is at the present time particularly interested in the movement to erect at Luray a memorial to Miss Winnie Davis, the beloved "Daughter of the Confederacy." This memorial will be no useless figure carved in stone or molded in brass.

but will be a home for the widows and orphans of the Lost Cause.

This is the work now dearest to his heart. Already he has opened on the Luray farm a "Winnie Davis Cottage" for the reception of orphans of southern soldiers, and he is particularly anxious to raise at once $5,000 with which to open a cottage for soldiers' widows.

The Winnie Davis memorial will cost $25,000, and it will be in the highest sense a memorial to a woman who is loved and revered by thousands throughout the country—north and south—as a typical American woman in all that this name implies.

A JUDGE SELLS JOBS.

Evansville, Ind., Jan. 2.—Acknowledgment has been made by Louis O. Rasch, judge of the circuit court, that he had accepted money for political appointments at his disposal. He denies intention of wrong doing, saying he had asked John A. Sanders, bailiff, for $200 and A. C. Hawkins, probate commissioner, for $750 to help defray the campaign expenses and these amounts they willingly agreed to pay.

Sanders' money was accepted but returned next day after a committee of members of the bar visited the judge and pointed out the seriousness of his act. Commissioner Hawkins, according to Judge Rasch, did not pay any part of his assessment. Judge Rasch is a republican. He is thirty-six years old. His brother, Edward, retired from the county recorder's office yesterday after eight years' incumbency. The judge is almost prostrated over the exposure. His only justification is that he was acting in good faith with his men and took what he received from them in the nature of a contribution to his campaign fund.

GERMANY'S MADE LARGER.

Berlin, Jan. 2.—Partial returns from the consular districts indicate that Germany's exports to the United States increased in 1902 by about $5,000,000 over those of 1901. The net increase in nine districts of North Germany alone amount to $2,953,071, chiefly in textiles. Bremen and Magdeburg showed decreases together of $2,500,000, principally in sugar. The imports from the United States fell off, but no reliable figures are available.

BULGARIANS SLAY TURKS.

Constantinople, Jan. 2.—In a recent fight between Bulgarians and Turkish troops at the village of Drenovo, in the Monastir district, fifteen of the latter were killed or wounded. The Turkish commander was among the killed. The Bulgarians, who were barricaded in a house, also sustained losses, but the survivors escaped.

SOUSA IN ENGLAND.

Southampton, England, Jan. 2.—The American line steamer St. Louis, from New York, Dec. 24, arrived here about 6 o'clock this morning, having been delayed by bad weather. Sousa and his bandmen, who were passengers on the St. Louis, will have their opening performance in London tonight.

INSANE MAN WAS ARMED.

New York, Jan. 2.—A man, apparently insane, tried to gain entrance to the private office of General Greene, the new police commissioner, at police headquarters, today, saying that he was the new commissioner. Inspector Brooks inveigled him to the Mulberry street station. Two loaded revolvers were found in his coat pockets.

EMBEZZLED LARGE SUM.

London, Jan. 2.—G. H. Elder was remanded at the Guild Hall police court today, charged on his own confession with having embezzled $75,000 from his employers, Brown, Shipley & Co., the American bankers. The embezzlements had been going on for three years.

ARCHDUKE SUPPOSED TO BE DEAD IS ALIVE

Renounced Titles and Took Humble Name--Archduke Leopold Tells Story.

New York, Jan. 2.—Archduke Leopold, who assisted his sister, the crown princess of Saxony, in her elopement with her children's French tutor, has made the sensational statement to a reporter of Die Zeit, according to the American's Vienna correspondent, that Archduke Johann Nepomuk Salvator, who renounced his titles and took the name of John Orth, and was supposed to have perished in a shipwreck off the South American coast, is really alive. Johann Orth was, or is, an uncle of Leopold and of the crown princess. Like his nephew, he left the court to go with an actress. Fraulein Mizzi Strubel was with Johann Orth when he disappeared.

Archduke Leopold says he believes his uncle is living with the Archduke Louis Salvator, brother to John Orth, and also to the present grand duke of Tuscany. Archduke Louis is eccentric and spends ten months of the year on a tiny Ionian isle and the rest of his time on a yacht.

FIGHT AGAINST SALOONS.

Brazil, Ind., Jan. 2.—A desperate fight is being waged in Perry township, this county, between the Anti-Saloon league and the liquor element, and the affair is being fought out between the county commissioners here this week.

The league filed a blanket remonstrance against every saloon in Perry township, and the remonstrance contained sufficient signatures to wipe out all saloons in that township. When the remonstrance was called for a few days ago it was missing.

The league charges that its opponents stole the paper. It put forces in the field and today filed a new and larger remonstrance than the one that is missing.

FIRES FROM HIGH PRESSURE.

A rise in the gas pressure last evening between 6 and 8 o'clock is alleged to be responsible for two fires, one at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Morgan, of 92 Wagner street, and the other at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dayton Janness, of 1029 Walters street. Mr. and Mrs. Morgan went to the country to visit friends yesterday morning and neglected to turn down their kitchen fire. After the pressure increased in the evening the stove became red hot and set fire to the kitchen. The blaze was discovered by neighbors, who formed a bucket brigade and made an unsuccessful attempt to subdue the flames. The chemical engine responded to a telephone call and the fire was soon extinguished. The neighbors succeeded in saving most of the furniture. The entire roof was burned away, and the loss will be several hundred dollars, covered by insurance.

The fire in Mr. Janness' home started in the same manner and an alarm was sent in from No. 4 engine house. The residence belongs to Mrs. Swain and the damage will amount to about $300. The household furniture was damaged considerably and is uninsured. Mr. and Mrs. Janness have lived in the house but ten days.

DYSPEPSIA OF WOMEN.

Mrs. E. B. Bradshaw, of Guthrie, Okla., cured of a severe case by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

A great many women suffer with a form of indigestion or dyspepsia which does not seem to yield to ordinary medical treatment. While the symptoms seem to be similar to those of ordinary indigestion, yet the medicines universally prescribed do not seem to restore the patient's normal condition.

Mrs. Pinkham claims that there is a kind of dyspepsia that is caused by derangement of the female organism, and which, while it causes disturbance similar to ordinary indigestion, cannot be relieved without a medicine which not only acts as a stomach tonic, but has peculiar uterine tonic effects as well.

Thousands of testimonial letters prove beyond question that nothing will relieve this distressing condition so surely as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It always works in harmony with the female system. Mrs. Pinkham advises sick women free. Address Lynn, Mass.

E. R. HOGLE'S LIFE ENDS SUDDENLY

General Superintendent of U. S. Express Co.—Was Well Known Here.

THE AUXILIARY DANCE

Loyal Lodge Entertains the Trainmen's Brotherhood and Their Friends.

Charles B. Beaver, agent of the United States Express company, received by mail this morning information of the death of E. R. Hogle, which occurred in Cleveland yesterday. The deceased was general superintendent of the second division of the United States Express company's system and was a frequent visitor in this city. He began his career as an expressman in the capacity of a messenger on the road and thirty years ago, when Mr. Beaver was a messenger on the Grand Rapids and Indiana road, running in and out of Cincinnati. Mr. Hogle held a similar position on the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton road, running between Toledo and Cincinnati, with headquarters in Toledo. For a number of years he was assistant to General Superintendent Marshall, who died two years ago, and whom he succeeded in the superintendency. The remains of Mr. Hogle were taken to Toledo today and interment will take place in that city tomorrow. Mr. Beaver will endeavor to attend the funeral.

ORDERS PLACED DURING YEAR.

While the past year was by far the most prosperous in the history of American railways and the output from the locomotive and car shops of the country beyond all precedent, there were less cars and locomotives ordered during the year 1902 than during the preceding year. This may be accounted for by the fact that the shops were so well supplied with orders that they made no effort to secure any more. A record published by the Railway Age January 3, 1902, showed that during the year 1901 orders were placed for 193,000 freight cars, 4,740 locomotives and 2,379 passenger cars. The Age gives the number of freight cars ordered for 1902 at 189,000, locomotives at 4,700 and passenger cars at 2,379.

GOES ON A WAR VESSEL.

Samuel Y. Blair resigned his position at the Pittsburgh machine shop this morning, upon receipt of news of the acceptance of his application for a position in the government marine service. Tomorrow he will leave for San Francisco, where he will go aboard a man of war as a machinist. Mr. Blair came to this city several months ago with others from Philadelphia. He is a good mechanic and a clever fellow and the shopmen regret his resignation.

HOLDS FAMILY REUNION.

One of the happiest gatherings in the city yesterday was that which occurred at the home of Fred J. Tieman, the well known contractor residing at 2138 Broadway. It was in the nature of a family reunion and there were upwards of thirty participants, all relatives, including Mr. Tieman's children and grandchildren and his nieces and nephews. One of the features of the day was the dinner, which included all the delicacies of the season and nearly the whole list of substantial dishes. Mr. Tieman is one of the best known contractors and is a highly respected citizen.

ENGINEERS ARE FAVORED.

The retiring general manager of the Pennsylvania railroad is an engineer of prominence. Or his forty years of service more than one-third was spent in the engineering department. The new general manager is also an engineer, and up to this time all his work has been in the mechanical department. In looking over the lists of general officers of the Pennsylvania, from the president down, and through the list of operating officers, it will be found that the engineer predominates. The same is true of the Baltimore and Ohio, and in running through the lists of other railroad companies it is found that engineers are becoming more numerous in the general offices and in the transportation department. Men are picked out because they can do the work and not because they have had some one kind of education, and as a majority of those promoted are practically young men who are attending examinations in the engineering schools during the holidays. Examination of railroad lists will show that the average age of important officers is in favor of young men, and the same is true, says the Railroad Gazette, in industrial lines. The new general manager of the Pennsylvania is only thirty-seven years of age, the president of the Baltimore and Ohio is only forty-four and he was general manager of the Pennsylvania at thirty-six.

THE LOYAL LODGE DANCE.

The dance at Knights of Columbus hall, given by Loyal Lodge, No. 83, Ladies' Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, was the enjoyable event the ladies promised and has added luster to their already enviable reputation as entertainers. On account of the many dances earlier in the week and the several similar events last evening, some of the ladies engaged in this one were fearful lest it should not come up to the standard of the dance of a year ago. All doubts were dispelled, however, before the first number was called, for the crowd at that hour was all the hall could comfortably accommodate. Neither was there anything lacking in the character of the guests. They were principally railway men and members of their families and taken as a whole the party was of a higher standard of respectability than is usual to public functions of this character. This was due to the care the ladies took in selecting tickets, the aim being to keep them out of the hands of disreputable persons. In fact, it was the aim of the management to have no one at the dance whom the members of the lodge would not admit to their homes and class as worthy acquaintances, and the result proved the wisdom of this plan. The annex orchestra furnished the music for the twenty-four number program and Messrs. and Mesdames Will Logan and Walter Erickson led the grand march. Mesdames Ella Foster, Izoma Logan and Carrie Webber composed the committee of arrangements; Mrs. B. A. Dent, assisted by the lodge members, received and looked after the comfort of the guests, while Will Logan, Will Rooney, Will Clements, Henry Webber, Walter Erickson, George Stanley, George Clark, Clifton Arick and Orlo Hall officiated as the floor committee. Refreshments, consisting of sandwiches, coffee, cake, ice cream, etc., were served to those who desired it. The programs, which were handsomely embellished and gilded, were donated by Wolfis, a courtesy duly appreciated by the ladies.

HAND BADLY INJURED.

Theodore Roy, of the Wabash blacksmith shop, was the victim of a painful accident this morning. While at work in repairing one of the immense engine frames, his hand was caught between the frame and the chain of the hoisting crane and the thumb and index finger were crushed. The unfortunate man will probably go to the Peru hospital to stay until he is able to work.

CLOSED FOR REPAIRS.

The factories of Rhinesmith & Simonson and the Anthony Wayne Manufacturing company have shut down for inventory and repairs to the machinery. One of the boilers is to receive new flues and some of the machinery in the blind and sash department is to receive attention.

ENGINE OUTPUT.

Although there are only five working days in the present week, the output of repaired engines from the Pittsburgh shops is of the usual size and all received heavy repairs. They were as follows: Nos. 7307, 7506, 7018, 7058, 7363, 7322 and 7910.

OFFICIAL BULLETIN IS OUT.

The bulletin of President Joseph Ramsey, announcing the appointment of W. H. Ashley and E. B. Pryor as his assistants, reached the city this morning. The bulletin also announced the appointment of T. J. Tobin, of St. Louis, to the office of assistant auditor. Mr. Tobin is an old employee of the company.

The list of absentees at the Pittsburgh shops is larger today than usual, though it is not known that many of the men are sick. George W. Merritt and A. I suffered with stomach trouble for 20 years, during which time I tried many remedies and spent much money, none of which did me any good. My condition gave me the blues and I despaired of ever being cured. A. F. Kane advised me to try Kodol, and while I felt it useless at first, I am thankful that I did, as it has entirely cured me. It is the best stomach medicine in the world. J. R. SANFORD, Oregon, Pa.

KODOL SAVED MY LIFE.

This committee will report at a congregational meeting to be held in about three weeks. The following officers were elected: Secretary, Ernest Werkmann; elders, F. W. Hilgeman and Henry Brumer; deacons, Henry Klebe and Henry Buecker (re-elected); trustee, Henry Klebe (re-elected).

THE MARKETS.

Chicago, Jan. 2.—There was only a little trade in wheat at the opening today and prices were a trifle lower, May being 1/8c lower at 76 1/2c. Weather in Argentina more than offset the unfavorable conditions in the northwest and traders favored the selling side. Around 70c there was a good demand for May and the market held steady. Minneapolis and Duluth reported receipts of 807 cars, which, with local receipts of 44 cars—none of contract grade—made total receipts for the three points of cars, against 673 cars last week 355 cars a year ago.

The market lacked support throughout the entire day and weakness prevailed toward the end of the session, closing 1/8c lower at 75 1/2c, after falling down to 75 1/4c. Weather throughout the corn market caused a firmer tone to prices at the opening and May was unchanged to 1/8c higher at 43c to 43 1/4c. On fair buying by local the price advanced to 43 1/2c and 1/2 well the first hour. Local receipts were 305 cars, with 4 of contract grade.

Corn was influenced by the weakness in wheat and the colse was eased 1/8c lower at 42 1/2c. Weather quiet and about unchanged with May a shade lower to 33 1/2c higher at 33 1/2c to 33 3/4c. There was a fair demand for May and the price held firm at 33 1/2c. Receipts were 111 cars.

Provisions opened firm on smaller receipts of hogs, although the market at the yards was slow and a little lower. May pork was up 1/4c to 16 1/4c to 16 1/2c; May lard was changed to 2 1/4c higher at 95 1/2c to 95 1/4c, while ribs were a shade higher at 56 1/2c.

Brokers continued to buy and sellers again today and shorts covered freely and the market advanced temporarily, but declined realizing. January pork opened at 17.75@18.00, which is a gain from 25@27 1/2c to 50@52 1/2c over Wednesday's close, and it was anticipated that manipulation was mainly responsible for the upturn.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, Jan. 2.—There was a quiet and animated opening in the stock market with large fractional changes throughout the list. Missouri Pacific led on heavy dealings. The stock was quoted ex-dividend of 2 1/2 cents and recovered 1 1/2 of that in the first few minutes. United States Steel, Rock Island and United States Steel also were notably active at fractional advances. Gains reached 1 1/2 to 1 1/4 in United States Steel, Rock Island and Amalgamated Copper, Baltimore and Ohio, Chicago Great Western, Kansas and Texas preferred and Chesapeake and Ohio. St. Paul and Santa Fe preferred. Buying for Long account helped the advance, that showing a confident tone on the part of easier money conditions. Traders who took stocks in the early days of last year took profits at the attractive high prices at the close and their sales forced a decline of the speculative favorites. Wednesday's closing figures were reached about a point in St. Paul, Rock Island, Louisville, St. Paul and Santa Fe preferred and Pacific and Reading. Some properties improved, Anaconda and Chicago Great Western, Middlesboro, Detroit Southern, and Hudson and Consolidated Gas 1 1/2. Detroit United Railways lost 1/4. When the realizing sales showed signs of diminishing bull operators bid up Amalgamated, St. Paul, Missouri Pacific and Rock Island again. Amalgamated rose 2 1/2.

The market quieted down somewhat for a time with the announcement of a 10 per cent money rate, but the advance was renewed before noon and advances of a point or more became numerous. New Jersey Central and St. Paul and Omaha rose 3/4 each and Tennessee Coal and Iron Tobacco preferred 2 each. The Pacifics and Southwesterns generally and Erie rose a point and Kansas and Texas preferred 2 1/2.

Bonds were firm. Chesapeake and Ohio and Ontario and Western were in better demand and gained a point, but the trend elsewhere was downward. Room-traders took profits all through the list of active stocks, but the setback did not exceed a fraction except for Missouri Pacific, which lost 1/4. Cleveland, Lorain and Wheeling advanced 1 1/4 and American District Telegraph 1. Union Pacific was bought heavily towards 1 o'clock and rose to 10 1/2, causing a rally all around.

FAMINE IN WHITE LINEN.

Bloomington, Ill., Jan. 1.—For the first time in its history Bloomington is face to face with a clean linen famine.

The shortage in presentable attire is the result of a general tie-up of the laundries of the city for the last two weeks. The strike has been in partial operation, but the last institution closed last evening after making strong efforts to supply the wants of the entire city. The first laundry was closed two weeks ago owing to a disagreement among the girls and the foreman. One after another the other laundries were closed through sympathetic strikes.

THE KING AS SOLDIER.

In the multifarious work which has to be done by King Edward, of England, there is none of which he is a keener judge than the military part, for the simple reason that he was brought up as a soldier. He was taught by good tutors—he passed through the Guards, and no one knows better than he what the corps d'elite can do and what it is right to expect of the officers and men. Some years ago his majesty served in the same division as the Rifle brigade, and one of his most recent thoughtful acts has been to telegraph a welcome home to the First battalion of that regiment on its return from three years' campaigning in South Africa. As a young man the king served in the Guards. The lessons he then learned have not been forgotten, and there was more than mere compliment in his praise of the Guards' brigade after the review on the Horse Guards' parade. "They have marched past today as well as if not better, than I have ever seen them." That generous tribute was recognized later with cheers that will long be remembered by those who heard them. His majesty's intimate association with the military forces of the empire is succinctly shown in the army list, in which his name appears in twenty-four different connections.

KINGS LIKE PARIS.

The Paris climate did not treat the king of Portugal well, for he was most probably the first victim to the now finally established malady called "grip." He sneezed and coughed the louder, in that no one, especially a king, comes to Paris to have anything the matter with him but a heavy head and eyes, due to dissipation. To be sure, republicans love to entertain emperors and kings; they feel somewhat like poor relations entertaining their rich ones; but it's better, anyway, for kings must be amused, and Paris must superlatively amuse them to keep up its reputation. Don Carlos I., before his marriage to the Princess Amelie, the jewel of the Orleans family, came to Paris very often; it is said that he frequently came incognito, and lived quietly in a modest pied a terre, which he had furnished, so as to be free to go where he liked or to stay as long as he pleased. After his marriage those who pretended to have authority over him requested him to give up that Paris house, but he sternly refused; all he would consent to do was to stop at a hotel and then do as he liked. It is harder to take care of kings in Paris than in any other capital, because there are haunts which their royal majesties will not ignore when they know they will have a good time frequenting them.

The largest wooden statue in the world is to be seen at Tokio, where it has stood for many years. It stands 54 feet high, and the head will hold 50 people.

NEED THEM AT HOME.

The late Russian minister of the interior, M. Sipiagin, banished without trial 61,000 persons, including socialist leaders and men of education.

His successor, M. Plehwe, has found it necessary to persuade many of these to return to their homes, as it has been found that the expulsion of so many professional men and scientists has affected the general welfare of the country, and even its industrial development.

DYSPEPSIA OF WOMEN.

Mrs. E. B. Bradshaw, of Guthrie, Okla., cured of a severe case by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

A great many women suffer with a form of indigestion or dyspepsia which does not seem to yield to ordinary medical treatment. While the symptoms seem to be similar to those of ordinary indigestion, yet the medicines universally prescribed do not seem to restore the patient's normal condition.

Mrs. Pinkham claims that there is a kind of dyspepsia that is caused by derangement of the female organism, and which, while it causes disturbance similar to ordinary indigestion, cannot be relieved without a medicine which not only acts as a stomach tonic, but has peculiar uterine tonic effects as well.

Thousands of testimonial letters prove beyond question that nothing will relieve this distressing condition so surely as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It always works in harmony with the female system. Mrs. Pinkham advises sick women free. Address Lynn, Mass.

E. R. HOGLE'S LIFE ENDS SUDDENLY

General Superintendent of U. S. Express Co.—Was Well Known Here.

THE AUXILIARY DANCE

Loyal Lodge Entertains the Trainmen's Brotherhood and Their Friends.

Charles B. Beaver, agent of the United States Express company, received by mail this morning information of the death of E. R. Hogle, which occurred in Cleveland yesterday. The deceased was general superintendent of the second division of the United States Express company's system and was a frequent visitor in this city. He began his career as an expressman in the capacity of a messenger on the road and thirty years ago, when Mr. Beaver was a messenger on the Grand Rapids and Indiana road, running in and out of Cincinnati. Mr. Hogle held a similar position on the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton road, running between Toledo and Cincinnati, with headquarters in Toledo. For a number of years he was assistant to Superintendent Marshall, who died two years ago, and whom he succeeded in the superintendency. The remains of Mr. Hogle were taken to Toledo today and interment will take place in that city tomorrow. Mr. Beaver will endeavor to attend the funeral.

ORDERS PLACED DURING YEAR.

While the past year was by far the most prosperous in the history of American railways and the output from the locomotive and car shops of the country beyond all precedent, there were less cars and locomotives ordered during the year 1902 than during the preceding year. This may be accounted for by the fact that the shops were so well supplied with orders that they made no effort to secure any more. A record published by the Railway Age January 3, 1902, showed that during the year 1901 orders were placed for 193,000 freight cars, 4,740 locomotives and 2,379 passenger cars. The Age gives the number of freight cars ordered for 1902 at 185,000, locomotives at 4,700 and passenger cars at 2,379.

GOES ON A WAR VESSEL.

Samuel Y. Blair resigned his position at the Pittsburgh machine shop this morning, upon receipt of news of the acceptance of his application for a position in the government marine service. Tomorrow he will leave for San Francisco, where he will go aboard a man of war as a machinist. Mr. Blair came to this city several months ago with others from Philadelphia. He is a good mechanic and a clever fellow and the shopmen regret his resignation.

HOLDS FAMILY REUNION.

One of the happiest gatherings in the city yesterday was that which occurred at the home of Fred J. Tieman, the well known contractor residing at 2138 Broadway. It was in the nature of a family reunion and there were upwards of thirty participants, all relatives, including Mr. Tieman's children and grandchildren and his nieces and nephews. One of the features of the day was the dinner, which included all the delicacies of the season and nearly the whole list of substantial dishes. Mr. Tieman is one of the best known contractors and is a highly respected citizen.

ENGINEERS ARE FAVORED.

The retiring general manager of the Pennsylvania railroad is an engineer of prominence. Or his forty-years of service more than one-third was spent in the engineering department. The new general manager is also an engineer, and up to this time all his work has been in the mechanical department. In looking over the lists of general officers of the Pennsylvania, from the president down, and through the list of operating officers, it will be found that the engineer predominates. The same is true of the Baltimore and Ohio, and in running through the lists of other railroad companies it is found that engineers are becoming more numerous in the general offices and in the transportation department. Men are picked out because they can do the work and not because they have had some kind of education, and as a majority of those promoted are practically young men who are attending examinations in the engineering schools during the holidays. Examination of railroad lists will show that the average age of important officers is in favor of young men, and the same is true, says the Railroad Gazette, in industrial lines. The new general manager of the Pennsylvania is only thirty-seven years of age, the president of the Baltimore and Ohio is only forty-four and he was general manager of the Pennsylvania at thirty-six.

THE LOYAL LODGE DANCE.

The dance at Knights of Columbus hall, given by Loyal Lodge, No. 53, Ladies' Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, was the enjoyable event the ladies promised and has added luster to their already enviable reputation as entertainers. On account of the many dances earlier in the week and the several similar events last evening, some of the ladies engaged in this one were fearful lest it should not come up to the standard of the dance of a year ago. All doubts were dispelled, however, before the first number was called, for the crowd at that hour was all the hall could comfortably accommodate. Neither was there anything lacking in the character of the guests. They were principally railway men and members of their families and taken as a whole the party was of a higher standard of respectability than is usual to public functions of this character. This was due to the care the ladies took in selling tickets, the aim being to keep them out of the hands of disreputable persons. In fact, it was the aim of the management to have no one at the dance whom the members of the lodge would not admit to their homes and class as worthy acquaintances, and the result proved the wisdom of this plan. The Annex orchestra furnished the music for the twenty-four number program and Messrs. and Mesdames Will Logan and Walter Erickson led the grand march. Mesdames Ella Foster, Izoma Logan and Carrie Webber composed the committee of arrangements; Mrs. B. A. Dent, assisted by the lodge members, received and looked after the comfort of the guests, while Will Logan, Will Rooney, Will Clements, Henry Weber, Walter Erickson, George Sunley, George Clark, Clifton Arick and Orlo Hall officiated as the floor committee. Refreshments, consisting of sandwiches, coffee, cake, ice cream, etc., were served to those who desired it. The program, which were handsomely embellished and gilded, were donated by Wolffs', a courtesy duly appreciated by the ladies.

HAND BADLY INJURED.

Theodore Roy, of the Wabash blacksmith shop, was the victim of a painful accident this morning. While at work in repairing one of the immense engine frames, his hand was caught between the frame and the chain of the hoisting crane and the thumb and index finger were crushed. The unfortunate man will probably go to the Peru hospital to stay until he is able to work.

CLOSED FOR REPAIRS.

The factories of Rhinesmith & Simonson and the Anthony Wayne Manufacturing company have shut down for inventory and repairs to the machinery. One of the boilers is to receive new flues and some of the machinery in the blind and sash department is to receive attention.

ENGINE OUTPUT.

Although there are only five working days in the present week, the output of repaired engines from the Pittsburgh shops is of the usual size and all received heavy repairs. They were as follows: Nos. 7307, 7566, 7018, 7058, 7363, 7322 and 7910.

OFFICIAL BULLETIN IS OUT.

The bulletin of President Joseph Ramsey, announcing the appointment of W. H. Ashley and E. B. Pryor as his assistants, reached the city this morning. The bulletin also announced the appointment of T. J. Tobin, of St. Louis, to the office of assistant auditor. Mr. Tobin is an old employee of the company.

Edward Frame resigned a position at the Wabash freight house last night and this morning took a position with Smith & Randall, the lumbermen.

At midnight last night the last vestige of the Columbus, Sandusky and Hocking road disappeared, the line having been absorbed by the Pennsylvania and the Columbus and Hocking Valley roads.

W. C. A. Henry is in New Castle in the interest of the Pennsylvania company. A. C. Davis, who had been east, combining business for the company and a visit with relatives, has returned to the city.

R. Finerty, a fireman on the Pennsylvania lines, fell on an icy sidewalk yesterday while on his way to the round house to take out his run, and a deep gash was cut in his hip. He will be laid up for a few days.

This week ends the active service of W. S. Wells in the Pittsburgh shops until after the adjournment of the coming term of the state legislature. Mr. Wells is one of Allen county's representatives and with his family he will leave for the capital Monday morning.

E. D. Spahr, assistant fireman at the Pittsburgh planing mills, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Spore on the sad mission of burying their child at Bucyrus, Ohio, yesterday. The girl's death was mentioned by The Sentinel Wednesday. The father is a car builder at the east shops.

The list of absentees at the Pittsburgh shops is larger today than usual, though it is not known that many of the men are sick. George W. Merritt and A. Gerard, of the blacksmith shop, are sick and the following are off duty for unknown reasons, some of them probably being sick: E. E. Tierney, W. G. Page, J. H. Bryant, M. Kelliker, F. C. Patterson and P. R. Newman.

The following people have arranged for visits out of the city: Mrs. S. A. Esterline to Lima, O.; Mrs. H. Hamilton to Columbus City; Mrs. C. E. DeLong to Lima. The husbands of these ladies are firemen on the Pittsburgh road. Engineer and Mrs. J. O. Polhamus and their daughter will visit in Cleveland and Miss Mabel Erwin, daughter of the Pennsylvania engineer, will return from Bourbon this evening. She has been visiting for over a week in that city.

DR. SMITH'S FUNERAL TODAY.

Funeral services of the late Dr. Cornelius S. Smith, who died in Chicago, were held this afternoon from the Wayne street M. E. church. Rev. A. S. Preston and Rev. J. K. Walis officiating. Interment was at Lindenwood. The active pall bearers were selected from Dr. Smith's Sunday school class and included John Lane, J. W. Bowman, L. Beeber, D. Wohlfert, A. Baker and Jesse Dalman. The honorary pall bearers were chosen from the official board of the church. The funeral party arrived from Chicago Thursday evening and the remains were taken to the home of G. W. Brackenridge, on Douglas avenue. Mr. Brackenridge and Dr. Smith had been warm friends for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Wilson and family spent New Year's day with friends at Wabash.

On the morning dew and the birds sing their sweet songs, all Nature seems to lift a smile of reverential gratitude to the blessed Creator for making the world so beautiful. The man or woman out of harmony is out of health. Indigestion affects one's disposition as much as disease affects the mind.

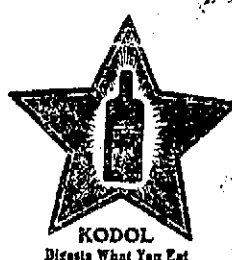

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

Kodol cures indigestion and restores health to mind and strength to body. This new discovery cures the sick and strengthens the weak when all other remedies fail, because it rests the stomach and at the same time enables the digestive organs to transform all foods into nourishment. What more is needed?

Relieve the stomach of all nervous strain, and nourish the body—give it strength, and you lay the foundation for health. Kodol does not only relieve indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles, but it gives such strength and vigor to each individual organ of the body that the disease is thrown off—overcome entirely.

I SUFFERED 20 YEARS.

I suffered with stomach trouble for 20 years, during which time I tried many remedies and spent much money, none of which did me any good. My condition was the blues and I despaired of ever being cured. A. F. Hine advised me to try Kodol, and while I felt it useless at first, I did, as it has entirely cured me. It is the best stomach medicine in the world. J. R. SANFORD, Orson, Pa.

KODOL SAVED MY LIFE.

For a number of years I was troubled with Dyspepsia and Indigestion. It grew into the worst form, nothing I used did me any good. Finally, seeing Kodol advertised I tried it and after using four bottles I was entirely cured. Kodol does all that is claimed for it. I heartily recommend it to all sufferers from Dyspepsia and Indigestion. MRS. GARRIE GRANFILL, Trav. I. T.

ST. JOHN'S REFORMED.

The matter of remodeling the church was the most important matter claiming the attention of the congregation of St. John's Reformed church yesterday afternoon. The matter was discussed at length and the general sentiment seemed to be in favor of making the improvement. Owing to a lack of specifications as to the cost of rebuilding the church, no definite action in the matter was taken, a committee consisting of Contractors Henry Hilgeman, Adolph Grotholtman, Ernest Roth and William Hilgeman being appointed to act in conjunction with the trustees and secure figures as to the cost. This committee will report at a congregational meeting to be held in about three weeks. The following officers were elected: Secretary, Ernest Werkman; elders, F. W. Hilgeman and Henry Branner; deacons, Henry Klebe and Henry Buecker (re-elected); trustee, Henry Klebe, (re-elected).

SEWER CASE LIKELY TO LEAVE COUNTY

Rumor that Some Remonstrants to South Wayne Assessments Are Out of It.

Today was the return day fixed by the superior court in the South
Wayne sewer injunction proceedings, and it was expected that the argument upon the restraining order issued by Judge Heaton to prevent the confirmation of the assessments would be taken up when court convened this afternoon. The case did not come up, however, and it was learned early today that attorneys would ask for a postponement of the hearing. It is probable that the matter will not come up before Monday.

It is learned, also, that there is a probability that the remonstrance will, as soon as the case is called, file an application for a change of venue and ask that the case be sent to another county. Judge Heaton is the owner of property in South
Wayne affected by the construction of the big drain.

With this probability comes also the rumor that several of the applicants for the restraining order have reconsidered their decision regarding the matter, and will have nothing further to do with the suit. Among those said to have withdrawn are E.
H. Coombs, Judge Zollars and G.
Charles Greiner. The complaints included the three named above, together with John Dreihelbiss, H. C.
and Mary D. Moderswell, Jeremiah Downing, Frank Thompson and Susan Moritz. The assessment roll was confirmed except as to the property of these complainants. The time for bonding expires on Wednesday of next week.

THE CHARITIES REPORT.

During the month of December the Associated Charities received 43 application for aid, representing 58 adults and 83 children. Of the total number 29 were resident families containing children, 3 resident families having no children, 4 women and one single man; 4 men and 2 families were non-residents. In 15 of the applications no action was deemed necessary, and aid was provided for the necessitous from the Relief union, trustees, churches, Visiting Nurse league, individuals, home for emergencies. One case was cared for through the board of children's guardians. Six women were offered work at the work room; 3 men were offered work, 2 of them accepting. Twenty-two of the applications were made directly to the office, 15 were sent by citizens, 4 by trustees, 2 from associated charities of other cities. Temporary employment was secured in two instances.
The general secretary made 28 investigations, requiring 71 calls in different parts of the city. At the office there were 107 personal calls and 124 calls by telephone. In addition to regular office work, names of a large number of families were supplied to citizens, Sunday schools and organizations, who sent Chris-mas supplies and cheer.

BROKE HIS ARM AT THE RINK.

A. L. Beck, manager of the Fort Wayne Loan company, was painfully injured at the Princess rink last evening while skating. Mr. Beck was just rounding one of the turns when a couple who were going faster than he was ran into him and knocked him down. In falling, his right arm was doubled up under him in such a manner as to dislocate the wrist and break the forearm. Though the injury is not a serious one, it is very painful and will lay Mr. Beck up for a few days.

PALMER'S VILLAGE.

Who of the present generation remembers the Palmers' Village, through which Victoria street 40 years ago plowed its long furrow?
London is still changing, and the next generation will probably read with great surprise of some of the old-world quarters of this age which are now threatened.

This Palmer's village, as a writer on Westminster in London has informed us, was one of the most remarkable spots ever found within a city. Here, surrounded by crowded streets and courts, and narrow, dark lanes and situated right in the midst of the parish, was a little rural community living a life to itself.

It had a village green and an old-fashioned wayside inn. The village shop is replaced by that conglomerate of business under one roof
known as the army and navy stores.
—London Express.

DIG CROWN LANDS.

Among the great ground landlords in London the Crown is one of the greatest, owning properties in various parts of the capital yielding in ground rents £460,000 per annum.

Fifteen years ago the estates produced £350,000 only; but many leases have fallen in within that time, and the increased rents have been exacted for renewed fines or for new leases.

The Carlton hotel is a striking instance of the increased value of ground in London. Formerly the site on which the hotel stands was held from the Crown for a ground rent of £763 per annum; now £4,200 yearly has to be paid.—London Express.

HOME AGAIN.

There is no more joyful pleasure than to be home again. This good news will be enjoyed by our many friends and patrons, as well as by our employes and ourselves. We commence the new year by manufacturing and baking our goods again at home, in our improved bake-shop and handsome new bake-oven, which is one of the finest in the United States. Our aim is to make the best and purest bakery goods at all times;
our continued success in this line is proof gained by the merits of our goods. We now occupy 3,100 square feet of floor space, thus doubling our former capacity, and we are now able to supply all demands on short notice. Your grocer will handle our bakery goods, if you will insist on having them do so. Remember, we are operating our bakery on the sanitary system. Thanking all our friends for past patronage and hoping to serve your future wants for all kinds of bread, cakes, pastry, etc.,
etc., we wish you a happy and prosperous New Year.

Edward Carto, of 2028 Thomas street, was surprised Wednesday night by a party of his friends, who appeared at his home to watch the new year in. The early evening was spent in progressive play, the first prizes going to Miss Anna Drissel and J. Waldschmidt and the second prizes to Mrs. W. Rogers and F. Carey. The congratulations were awarded to Mrs. M. Gordon and Mr. McTott. Arthur McTott and Charles Aubrey contributed greatly to the entertainment of the party, the former by playing some choice selections on the piano and the latter by singing some fine songs. Miss Othella Meyers was a guest from out of the city.

Promptly at midnight a large American flag, suspended from the ceiling at one end of the room, was unrolled. Inscribed upon it in white letters was the greeting "Colonial Club, Happy New Year to All," and the event brought forth hearty cheers. Afterward the guests, wearing colonial night caps, partook of a delicious five course supper. Prizes were won in the games by Miss Mae Kemp, Earl Marshall, Mrs. Strain and Mr. Williams. Music was furnished by Earl Havens.

SEWER CASE LIKELY TO LEAVE COUNTY

Rumor that Some Remonstrants to South Wayne Assessments Are Out of It.

Today was the return day fixed by the superior court in the South Wayne sewer injunction proceedings, and it was expected that the argument upon the restraining order issued by Judge Heaton to prevent the confirmation of the assessments would be taken up when court convened this afternoon. The case did not come up, however, and it was learned early today that attorneys would ask for a postponement of the hearing. It is probable that the matter will not come up before Monday.

It is learned, also, that there is a probability that the remonstrants will, as soon as the case is called, file an application for a change of venue and ask that the case be sent to another county. Judge Heaton is the owner of property in South Wayne affected by the construction of the big drain.

With this probability comes also the rumor that several of the applicants for the restraining order have reconsidered their decision regarding the matter, and will have nothing further to do with the suit. Among those said to have withdrawn are E. H. Coombs, Judge Zollars and G. Charles Greiner. The complaints included the three named above, together with John Dreibobbs, H. C. and Mary D. Moberwell, Jeremiah Downing, Frank Thompson and Susan Moritz. The assessment roll was confirmed except as to the property of these complainants. The time for bonding expires on Wednesday of next week.

THE CHARITIES REPORT.

During the month of December the Associated Charities received 43 applications for aid, representing 58 adults and 83 children. Of the total number 29 were resident families containing children, 3 resident families having no children, 4 women and one single man; 4 men and 2 families were non-residents. In 15 of the applications no action was deemed necessary, and aid was procured for the necessitous from the Relief union, trustees, churches, visiting nurse league, individuals, home for emergencies. One case was cared for through the board of children's guardians. Six women were offered work at the work room; 3 men were offered work, 2 of them accepting. Twenty-two of the applications were made directly to the office, 15 were sent by citizens, 4 by trustees, 2 from associated charities of other cities. Temporary employment was secured in two instances. The general secretary made 28 investigations, requiring 71 calls in different parts of the city. At the office there were 107 personal calls and 124 calls by telephone. In addition to regular office work, names of a large number of families were supplied to citizens, Sunday schools and organizations, who sent Christmas supplies and cheer.

The St. Joe township Sunday school convention will be held in Mayhew chapel next Sunday. A noted speaker is expected to speak at the morning service. The following program will be rendered:

BROKE HIS ARM AT THE RINK.

A. L. Beck, manager of the Fort Wayne Loan company, was painfully injured at the Princess rink last evening while skating. Mr. Beck was just rounding one of the turns when a couple who were going faster than he was ran into him and knocked him down. In falling, his right arm was doubled up under him in such a manner as to dislocate the wrist and break the forearm. Though the injury is not a serious one, it is very painful and will lay Mr. Beck up for a few days.

PALMER'S VILLAGE.

Who of the present generation remembers the Palmers' Village, through which Victoria street 40 years ago plowed its long furrow? London is still changing, and the next generation will probably read with as great surprise of some of the old-world quarters of this age which are now threatened.

This Palmer's village, as a writer on Westminster in London has informed us, was one of the most remarkable spots ever found within a city. Here, surrounded by crowded streets and courts, and narrow, dark lanes and situated right in the midst of the parish, was a little rural community living a life to itself.

It had a village green and an old-fashioned wayside inn. The village shop is replaced by that conglomeration of business under one roof known as the army and navy stores.—London Express.

BIG CROWN LANDS.

Among the great ground landlords in London the Crown is one of the greatest, owning properties in various parts of the capital yielding in ground rents £460,000 per annum.

Fifteen years ago the estates produced £250,000 only; but many leases have fallen in within that time, and the increased rents have been exacted for renewed fines or for new leases.

The Carlton hotel is a striking instance of the increased value of ground in London. Formerly the site on which the hotel stands was held from the Crown for a ground rent of £763 per annum; now £4,200 yearly has to be paid.—London Express.

HOME AGAIN.

There is no more joyful pleasure than to be home again. This good news will be enjoyed by our many friends and patrons, as well as by our employees and ourselves. We commence the new year by manufacturing and baking our goods again at home, in our improved bake-shop and handsome new bake-oven, which is one of the finest in the United States. Our aim is to make the best and purest bakery goods at all times; our continued success in this line is proof gained by the merits of our goods. We now occupy 3,160 square feet of floor space, thus doubling our former capacity, and we are now able to supply all demands on short notice. Your grocer will handle our bakery goods, if you will insist on having them do so. Remember, we are operating our bakery on the sanitary system. Thanking all our friends for past patronage and hoping to serve your future wants for all kinds of bread, cakes, pastry, etc., etc., we wish you a happy and prosperous New Year.
